MENDOZA

The Province of Mendoza is located in the Andean Region of the Argentine Republic, more precisely, in the West Center of the country, and shares a border with Chile.

Worldly acknowledged by its viticulture, Mendoza takes part of the 9 International Capitals of Wine and it has been included among the 21 Wonder Cities of the World in the Contest “New 7 Wonders Cities”. Some of its main attractions are the National Harvest Festival and its natural landscapes like the Aconcagua Hill (America’s highest mountain peak).

Mendoza is currently becoming the fourth most important city of Argentina, and shapes a touristic and university attraction with over 70000 university students and 1500000 tourists per year.

Population:

1900000 Approx.

Weather:

Pleasant, temperate,
Scanty rainfall and radiant sun
(4 well-defined seasons)
Urban Oasis

BY PLANE

Mendoza counts with the International Airport: “Gobernador Francisco Gabrielli” to which people can arrive from Chile, Brazil, Lima, Panamá, or from different Argentine provinces (Buenos Aires, Córdoba, Salta, Barrioche and Misiones). This airport is 6 miles away from Mendoza’s Capital City.

BY LAND

Since Mendoza is close to Chile, travelling by bus is also a good option for those who travel from there. The bus station is located at the heart of the City of Mendoza.

This option is not recommended during the winter (from June to August).

Our University works on 3 fundamental pillars:

TEACHING

Promoting teaching vocation of our students and guaranteeing the constant training of our professors.

RESEARCH

Generating knowledge and promoting scientific vocation inside the UNCUYO.

EXTENSION AND LIAISON

Creating bonds between the University and the community.

EXTENSION

The nexus between the University and Society is the main core of our University. With this purpose the UNUCUYO promotes activities and programs that strengthen the cultural and artistic development of the province and promote the university inclusion in the social, political, scientific and cultural debates by providing an analytical opinion.

To know more, see:
<http://www.uncuyo.edu.ar/extension>

With this spirit Programs and projects are developed. They are formed by interdisciplinary teams which function as advisers in each of the activities that are introduced.

LIAISON

Knowledge is recreated and modified in its articulation with society, and therefore, UNCUYO works on two lines of action for the development of the Province: Technological and socio-productive liaison and the Entrepreneurial Development Area.

★ Participá con tu equipo de nuestra Maraton de Ideas ★

*Undertake Challenge: Participate with your team in our marathon of ideas.

SOCIAL INNOVATION

UNCuyo carries out programs which search for participation, commitment and interaction among the actors of the University and the members of the Community of Mendoza and Argentina so as to form a Socially Responsible University. With this aim in mind, activities and programs are introduced. They are related with social promotion, rights exercise, and the academic and social inclusion of the more vulnerable areas.

*Socio-educational Practices
"Gustavo Kent" Area of Social Articulation and Educational Inclusion
